

I'd like the memory of me
 To be a happy one,
 I'd like to leave
 an afterglow of smiles
 when life is done.
 I'd like to leave an echo
 Whispering softly down the ways,
 Of happy times and laughing times
And bright & sunny days.
 I'd like the tears of those who grieve,
 To dry before the sun
 Of happy memories
 that I leave behind
When life is done.

In Loving Memory

The Prayer:

Death is nothing.

I only crossed to the other side of the Path.

I am I, you are you.

Who I was to you guys, I will always be.

Give me the name which you all have always given me, speak to me how you always have.

You all continue to live in the world of creatures, I am living in the world of the Creator.

Do not use a tone of solemnness or sadness, continue laughing from what would make us laugh together.

Risk, smile, think of me. Risk for me.

That my name is pronounced as it always was, without emphasis at all. Without a trace of shadow or sadness.

Life means everything it always has.

The wire was not cut.

Now I will be in your thoughts, I am only out of sight

I am not far, I am only on the other side of the Path.

You are the one that stayed, continue forward
