They say that I am growing old. I've heard them tell it times untold.
But I'm not growing old! This frail, old shell in which I dwell is growing old,
I know full well, But I am not the shell.

What if my hair is turning grey? Grey hairs are honorable, they say.
What if my eyesight's growing dim? I still can see to follow Him.
Who sacrificed His life for me upon the Cross of Calvary!

What should I care if Time's old plow has left its furrows on my brow?
Another house, not made with hand awaits me in the Glory Land.
What tho' I falter in my walk? What tho' my tongue refuse to talk?
I still can tread the Narrow Way - I still can watch and praise and pray!

My hearing may not be as keen as in the past it may have been.
Still, I can hear my Savior say, in whispers soft, "This is the way."
The inward man, the Scriptures say, is growing stronger every day.
Then how can I be growing old when safe within my Savior's fold?

Ere long my soul shall fly away and leave this tenement of clay.
This robe of flesh I'll drop and rise to seize the everlasting prize.
I'll meet you on the Streets of Gold and prove to you, I'm not growing old!
