In Loving Memory of Stephen Michael Hunt

Michael grew up in Joplin, MO enjoying the lake, ROTC and playing the trumpet in the marching band. Out of high school, he managed the Fox Theatre, where he met the love of his life, Carol. His theatre career eventually brought them to St. Joseph, MO where they lived for 25 years and raised their 2 daughters.

He was an entrepreneur with a heart for helping those less fortunate. He loved reading and traveling, especially with Carol by his side. He had been in Springfield for 20 years enjoying being close to family and grandchildren. His most recent passion was serving on the leadership team at Red Tree Church.

Michael was a dreamer, very generous, soft hearted and a devoted husband and father. He loved to barbecue, was a dog lover and was often known for telling corny jokes.
