"Bogart"

Shannon Dean "Bogart"

June 27th, 1965 - June 21st, 2019

Bogart was a man that loved you and didn't even have to say it (only saying "you too"). His actions never failed to show us how he truly felt, with his words of wisdom, the respect he gave, his willingness to correct you when you were wrong & ALWAYS THERE to lend you an ear and a helping hand.

You couldn't cross his path and not connect with him, an instant friendship would begin.

Everything about him will be missed, his love for race cars & auto mechanics, from him showing up for coffee time with those he loved, his insistence on ham for every holiday, his refusal of eating anything made with eggs in it, to his love of chocolate milk with donuts, sweet Little Debbie snack cakes & his pet names for each of those closest to him.

Shannon was an excellent father to 7 children: Dakota Bogart, Kyenne Bogart, Zachary Long, Stevie Slavens Sr., Darin Slavens, Branden Slavens Sr. & John Ryan Slavens; the best brother to Shelley Holder & Donald "Shane" Van Cleve; 11 grandchildren; uncle to 4 nephews & 3 nieces; and great-uncle to many. His life-long best friends were Phyllis Slavens & John Henry Eagleburger, & a host of many other friends that became family. He was living with his sister-in-law Jennifer Van Cleve in Ozark, Mo. Each and every one played a huge role in his life & he in ours.

He is preceded in death by his mom, Nancy Bogart, dad, Erwin "Don" Van Cleve & Grandma Evelyn Van Cleve.

He is deeply loved and will be dearly missed by all.

On the wings of a dove.
