Richard Allen Machmuller

God looked around His garden and found an empty place. He then looked down upon the earth and saw your tired face. He put His arms around you and He lifted you to rest. God's garden must be beautiful, He only takes the best. He knew that you were suffering, He knew you were in pain. He knew that you would never get well on earth again. He saw the road getting rough and hills were hard to climb. So He closed your weary eyelids and whispered peace is thine. It broke our hearts to lose you, but you didn't go alone. For part of us went with you the day God took you home. Though the smile is gone forever and your hands we cannot touch, we will always have sweet memories of the one we loved so much.
