

APPRECIATION

David's entire family wishes to express their sincere appreciation for the many comforting thoughts and prayers, floral tributes, and many acts of kindness extended to each of them during this time. Each of you holds a special place in our hearts.

I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one,
I'd like to leave
an afterglow of smiles
when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright & sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve,
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories
that I leave behind
When life is done.

Celebrating a Life

David Robert Wynn

Remember, old folks are worth a fortune, with silver in their hair , gold in their teeth, stones in their kidneys, lead in their feet, and gas in their stomachs.

I have become a little older since I saw you last and a few changes have come into my life since then. Frankly, I have become quite a frivolous old gal. I am seeing 5 gentlemen every day.

As soon as I wake up, will power helps me out of bed. Then I go to see John. Then Charlie Horse comes along, and when he is here he takes up alot of my time and attention. When he leaves Arthur Ritis shows up and stays the rest of the day. He doesn't like to stay in one place for very long, so he takes me from joint to joint. After such a busy day I'm really tired and glad to go to bed with Ben Gay.

What a life..... P.S. The Preacher came to call the other day. He said at my age I should start thinking about the hereafter. I told him, oh, I do this all the time, no matter what room I am in, I am always wondering what I am here after.
