Upon this day of your departure, my boy

I cannot see this as a day of joy

Although our hearts are breaking, your mother and I,

All we can do is but wonder why.

To the powers to be, you'r a pebble of sand,

To us, your the greatest in the land.

Our hearts will weep for you at night, and through the day,

Hoping that God will protect you and send you back this way.

As I before you served our God and Country this way.

I will be proud to say, my Son is a fighting Man today.
