Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free!

Miss me a little, but not for long,
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me, but let me go!

For this a journey we all must take,
And each must go alone;
It's all a part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds,
Miss me, but let me go.

Corwin George Odom, age 50 of Springfield, MO left this earth at 4:50 a.m. on Monday, March 6th at Select Specialty Hospital.

Corwin was born July 14th, 1972, to George and Dorothy Odom in Prescott, AR. He attended Prescott School District, graduated in May of 1990, and enlisted in the U.S. Navy upon graduation. He was stationed in San Diego, CA and served his country during Desert Storm. He enjoyed talking about his Navy brothers, his experiences with the different cultures and countries during his time of service.

He later attended the University of AR Community College at Hope where he received his associate degree in Applied Sciences in Business and Technology in May of 1998.

Corwin was and always had been a family man. He often enjoyed being in the presence of his family, spending time with his nieces, nephews, and grandkids. He was the kind of man that you could trust and always lean on. Corwin was many things to many people, but a protector and provider for all those that he held near to his heart.

He was preceded in death by his parents, George, and Dorothy Odom; his grandparents, RG and Izora Jones and Critchton and Georgia Odom as well as his uncle, Charles Jones of Rockwall, TX.

He is survived by his life partner, Tara Porter; his children Avion Odom, Armonte Willis and Aaron Porter. He also leaves behind 3 siblings; Chandra (Aaron) Compton of Wylie, TX; Charra Odom (Prescott, AR), Mario Odom (Prescott, AR); nieces and nephews: Cecily and Aaron Christopher Compton (Wylie, TX), Amari Odom (Olathe, KS), Abigail, Kyle, Aleijha, Kayden, Carlos, Jr., and Kingston Edwards (Springfield, MO) as well as a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends, including his life long friend Walter McGill, and his first wife Jennifer Odom, special friend/sister, Itasha Charleston.
